FERTILIZER.

FERTILIZER.

WHANN'S RAW BONE SUPER PHOSPHATE.

The unexampled success of this renowned manure during many years, has a reputation which few other fertilizers can claim. Its sales are very extensive in all parts of the country, especially in those parts of the South where cotton and corn are largely grown. So decided and positive have been its results on these important staples, that in many sections it is preferred to all other manures.

prompt and active in its effects. It starts the young plant vigorously, and by furnishing a steady supply of nutriment during the period of its growth, brings the crop to a healthy maturity in time to escape the ravages of early frosts.

We offer this well known fertilizer to our friends, confident that they will concur in the opinion of the leading planters of the South, that for Cotton and Corn it is unequalled.

There will be a meeting of the Athletic Base Ball Club at the Citizens' ence.

boro with the convict Willis Grant,

The State Auditor has been busily engaged recently in sending out the yesterday completed the task, and every county is now furnished.

There were no new developments yesterday in regard to the case of small-pox reported by us yesterday.
The woman is doing well, and no spreading.

The ladies are especially invited to attend the match game of base ball to be played on the ground of the Athletes this afternoon. Seats will be prepared for them. The game is to commence at 3 o'clock.

A Local would have had to exhaust the endurance of a dozen men yesterday to muster up any items of interest. Nobody will do anything worth localizing just when you want them. And thus was the world.

We noticed a large and beautiful stock of pocket-books, combs, brushes, soaps and fancy articles at Simpson's drug store. Those who desire purchasing in the drug line should not fail to give Simpson a call.

Our Local Chief is still fighting the "critter" in the neighborhood of Barn and Stone Mountains. We hope to return him safe to his friends when he shall have finished his interview with Vulcan and his crew.

The order of the Knights of Pythias ing added to it. New uniforms for the entire body have arrived here from Philadelphia yesterday, and is a most handsome outfit.

Davidson county.

Another Base Ball Club, the Past Time, has been organized in this city, composed of 27 members, with Herbert Bragg as President, J. T. Bus-bee, Vice-President, and John T.
Pullen, Secretary and Treasurer.
The first game of this club will be played on Tuesday evening next.

We were pleased to meet in our office yesterday Mr. Robt. M. Furman, of the Asheville Citizen, who had been on a brief visit to his old home in Franklin. Robert looks as if the mountain air had agreed with him.
He will form one of the land-lubbers who expects to navigate Haw River in May.

It has become a well-settled maxim that no town can grow where the people are not alive, active and energetic. That class of business men always advertise, and advertise because they believe in it and because it does them good. Their enterprise infuses others with a like spirit, and as the list of advertisers in a town increases, it is safe to assert that the population and business of that town is prosperous and increasing.

REFORM MASS MEETING.—Notice has been given of a reform mass meeting to be held at Metropolitan Hall on Wednesday evening next, for the purpose of discussing municipal affairs, and of demanding a thorough reform in the city government.
This meeting has been called at the instance of many members of both political parties who desire this reform. The meeting will be addressed by Jos. W. Holden, James H.
Harris and others.

Collector McNamara, of the First District, has recently seized three wagons loaded with unstamped tobacco. The teamsters becoming frightened, escaped to the woods, and the wagons and tobacco are quietly in the possession of the Collector.
The Evening Crescent says of the wagons:

"A man named Brunnette drove one of the teams, but the notice on his wagon represented A. W. Pool as the peddler. The boxes in his wagon represented 'Factory No. 146, J. H.
Pool, Kittrells, N. C.' The other two teams were driven by W. C.
Mangum and his nephew of the same name, of Granville county. The boxes in Mr. Mangum's wagon represented 'Factory No. 111, C. R. Cawthorne, Granville, N. C.' A box of tobacco was in each of these wagons representing 'Hamburger Bros, Norfolk, Va.'"

The pampered party of politicians in this locality are putting forth every effort to put themselves in place again. We plainly see a powerful effort to put out of place those partisanship who have grown pompous from the filthy power they have put in their pockets. "Lee-ve us alone," cries Bunting; "give us a White man's chance," says the Register; "we have the matter in our hands," writes Maguin; and in the melee, fines and school funds gets so terribly mixed up that the Commissioners get their brains muddled before they can order a second round of debate. All in all, it is a lively thing there is going to be a lively thing in the matter of the next county election. The longest pole will take the "simmons," even if Butler does not advocate him for the Boston Coterplouship.

dents.]

PITTSBORO, March 25th, 1874.
Messrs. Editors:—We arrived at this place on Monday night at 9 o'clock, landing at Burk's hotel, where we were refreshed by an excellent supper, after a ride of three and a half hours from Lookville. The distance of twelve miles, which must have been measured by a conch skin with the tail thrown in, judging from the length of time taken in the journey.

We found a great crowd in attendance upon Court, which convened on Monday, with Judge Tour-

MR. SAXES LECTURE ON THE "FRENCH FOLKS AT HOME."—Mr.
Saxe delivered his lecture on the "French Folks at Home" at Tucker Hall last evening to a good audience.
He was introduced by Col. Walter Clarke, of this city. The lecture was exceedingly interesting and was listened to with marked attention throughout, and elicited much applause. The following brief synopsis of the manner in which the speaker delineated the French character and customs will be found of interest:

The lecturer commenced with the remark that the man had wisdom as well as wit who, in his classification of humankind, divided the race into "Men, Women and French." It was a neat way of saying that the Gallic character is so peculiar that when you have described any mere man as such, a Frenchman's eyes, or perdition definition—being something more and other than you have put down in your description.

ENGLISH TRADITION.
John Bull—even the intelligent and traveling John Bull—still remembers, unconsciously perhaps, the ancient rude of his fathers, and toward the "frog-eaters," and can never quite do them justice, even if he cared to, which, commonly, he does not.

He enjoys his prejudices and antipathies too heartily for that, and does not wish to be abused of errors which are to him more agreeable than facts!

Indeed, his contempt for a Frenchman extends to the language he speaks, which he sometimes employs as a convenience of the moment—always, however, de-Gallicising the tongue as much as possible by his pronunciation—which, like that of the good Abbess in Chaucer's tale, has the accent taught in Stratford-at-Bow, rather than that of the Parisian schools.

His way of speaking the language is more English, and therefore better!

It is accordingly very easy to see that it is not to English tradition that we are to look for truth about French people.

THE POLICE OF PARIS.
The chief marvel of it all is the perfection of the police, which keeps so vast and incongruous a population of nearly nine millions in such good behavior; a system so thorough, efficient and so efficient as to render this city of two millions of people the most safe and orderly and decorous in the world.

It is often said that the French man is safer here at midnight than in New York or London at midday.
So rigorous, so vigilant, so ubiquitous is the police of Paris that nothing of importance escapes its Argus eyes, and seems beyond the reach of its Briar-rose arms. And yet it is seldom visibly meddlesome, and never noisily or brutally demonstrative.

ECONOMY AND FRUGALITY.
If I were asked what is the most striking trait in the character and domestic arrangements of the French people, I should answer Economy—using the word in its primitive and most extended signification. To make the most of everything—if not always the best—of the economy of life; to work in plain, in relation to that I think, the most French of all French arts and sciences. Of course, this economy means a good deal more than frugality, which, however, it includes, as a part of the economy of life. To this frugality, which is the most general minute, is added the proverbial Gallic savoir faire, the gift which the ancients gave to the Greeks (who were famous for it) called "the gift of the gods." To this frugality and savoir faire is added the French designate as "gaucherie"—that is to say, the utmost skill in contrivance and cleverness in application—a faculty, or rather a combination of faculties, so potent and universal as to fully compensate for the lack of the the mere want of an Irish family of the lower class would half suffice for the maintenance of a French household of a similar grade, containing an equal number of mouths to be fed and backs to be clothed.

FONDNESS FOR GAMES.
To games of all sorts they devote themselves with extraordinary and almost ludicrous enthusiasm. In their leisure moments, or when there is a company to entertain, the whole family and their visitors may be seen playing at loto, or backgammon, or dominoes for hours together, with copper coins for stakes, or wanting these, with beans, black and white—just to keep up the idea of hazard, so necessary to the pleasure of the gamester everywhere.

Besides these harmless games for couples and companies there are others for the consolation of the solitary—games for the single player—common to all men or invalids—in which, engaging his right hand against his left, he can divert himself with the antagonism of his personal members; and so, whatever the event, he always carries away a half victory, with never a more grievous chagrin than a half defeat.

THE CARNIVAL.
With all their fondness for dancing and kindred excitements, it is chiefly during the period of the Carnival that they give themselves up without reserve to the pleasures of the gamester, to the madness, not without method, of wine, music and masque-rade. The Carnival is the great festival which precedes the longest—the last day of the year to the "blessed pullets and fat hams" so unctuously celebrated by the minstrel of Pantagruel in the pages of Rabelais.

The good taste, the elegance, even among all classes, high and low, rich and poor, educated and ignorant.
How large a percentage of genuine benevolence can be found by a nice analysis of each particular "morceau" of speech. It is, of course, impossible to say. Good manners, no less than bad, are under the control of habit, and habit of any sort comes at last to be independent of special emotion.
But this is certain, that good habits commonly originate in good principles, and would fail at last without their support.

One of the best proofs of the genuineness of French benevolence in general is the fact that like certain articles of food and medicine, it may be "warranted to keep in any climate."

The best test of all that it is active at home, of constant employment in the routine of business, and in the intercourse of the family circle.
Let it be said, to the honor of the nation and by reflection to the shame of many American juveniles of both sexes, that no French child ever speaks to or of his parents or adult relations save in terms and tones of tender regard and profound respect.

SWEARING.
It is doubtless owing to his extreme excitability that the Frenchman's discourse is decorated so profusely with what is commonly called swearing.

His oaths, however, except on great occasions, are usually of a mild type, and seem very harmless indeed compared with the terrible oaths of an Englishman or an American, which rarely signify less than great
such, a Frenchman's eyes, or perdition to another's soul. As, according to the witty authors of the famous "One Horse-Show."

The deacon swore, as deacons dew, With an I do you and I tell you, In like manner the excited son of France avoids the stronger expressions of which he is capable, and vents his anger or his astonishment in a parbleu, ma parole or sa parole, which really have no offensive whatever, though from their azure color they may have given rise to the expression, "swearing till all is blue."

WORSHIP.
It is a pleasing and characteristic feature of worship in French churches that no privileges are arrogated by rank or wealth; that high and low, rich and poor, kneel side by side as if to acknowledge their common level of sin and weakness in the presence of the Great Father, a striking contrast to scenes which may be witnessed in many an English and American congregation, where remote and luxurious cushioned pews separate the laity from the lowly, and so the opulent and aristocratic may be spared the shock and the shame of confessing themselves "miserable sinners" in the hearing of the vulgar.

"TURNED OUT."—Under the above heading the Weldon News has the following concerning a late employee of this office—we heartily endorse the compliment paid him:

"Mr. James M. Bass, of Weldon, who began his apprenticeship with Messrs. Stone & Uzzell, on the Weldon News, in the fall of 1868, finished his time, five years, with his former employers, on the RALEIGH DAILY NEWS, the 1st of September, 1873.
Since that time he has been working with them for journeymen's wages.
Having a desire to 'see' some of the world, he threw up his 'sit' last week and came to this place Monday to visit his relatives and friends. After recreating for awhile he expects to travel. He has 'played the devil' and is now a Union Printer in good standing—a first-class workman—and he cheerfully recommends him to the 'craft' wherever he may cast anchor; and congratulate him upon his success, he having served a long and faithful apprenticeship."

CAPT. SAM'L T. WILLIAMS.—We learn that this gentleman, lately connected with this paper as its Political Editor, has located at Rocky Mount with a view of prosecuting a profession of law under the firm of Bunn & Williams. Capt. Williams while Editor of the News was a distinguished and successful lawyer, and by the practice of all those graces which mark the elegant gentleman, with whom he came in contact. We wish him that meet of success which he so richly deserves. A correspondent of the Petersburg Index-Appalachian says of him: "His is the head on which Dr. Barker's phenomenal hand loves to linger, perceiving with each pressure a new virtue."

THE STATE AGRICULTURAL JOUR-NAL.—We are informed that this excellent paper will commence at an early day a series of letters from the mountains of North Carolina, which will contain much valuable information in regard to that section of the State.
The gentleman who is engaged upon this important work in a letter to the conducting Editor, says: "I know every county West of the Blue Ridge —know all the prominent farms, and men of every class, young and old, and will give you a truthful statement of the resources of our magnificent country."

REGISTRATION.—The following is the report of the city registration up to 3 o'clock yesterday: Eastern Ward.—Whites, 25; Colored, 9.
Middle Ward.—Whites, 12; Colored, 12.
Western Ward.—Whites, 14; Colored, 22. Total, 94.

MAYOR'S COURT.—Michael Gary, United States soldier, was arraigned for a forcible trespass on the premises of Mrs. Westmore, in the Eastern Ward. The evidence sustained the charge, and Michael, in default of trial, was sent to prison to await his trial in April next.</

NORTH CAROLINA.

James Newsome, an old and respected citizen of Wilson, is dead.

"Conservatives" in the Star of Friday, strongly urge the re-nomination of Col. Waddell for Congress.

Stateville is claiming to be somewhat of a cotton market—308 bales have been shipped there this season.

The Statesville American does not think much damage has been done by the frost in that section this week.

Clinton, Sampson county, has petitioned the Post Master General for the revival of a daily mail from Warsaw.

Wilmington is to have a grand Charity Concert on Easter Monday evening, the proceeds to be given to the poor.

The Medical College, at Edinboro, Robeson county, is in a flourishing condition. Dr. H. McLean is President. So says the Wilmington Star.

Wilson county has an indebtedness of only three thousand dollars and her authorities have the funds wherever they settle that. Good Conservative rule has worked this result.

The Asheville Citizen says that a number of gentlemen are in that town who intend visiting Bald and Stone Mountains with a view of making a scientific investigation.

Clinton Grange, Patrons of Husbandry, held a public meeting on the 14th for the installation of officers. Dr. C. T. Murphy was the orator, and acquitted himself most handsomely.

The work of completing the Carolina Central Railway to Charlotte has been accomplished. It is thought, by the end of August next. The grading has been done to within eight miles of Charlotte.

Since the advent of Dr. Barker, the phenologist, in Rocky Mount, the Mail reports that "grave and decorous citizens march thoughtfully to the postoffice with their hats and canes, carrying their canines with the others."

Master Frank Daney, of Tarboro, has received the first premium for a prize story contributed to a child's paper up North. This is decidedly complimentary to Master Daney, who has only attained his thirteenth year.

The Commissioners of the county of Wilson are having the Courthouse enclosed with an elegant and substantial iron railing. The poor house of the county is also thoroughly repaired and made more comfortable.

The Rocky Mount Mail strongly endorses the proposition for the nomination of Maj. Jos. A. Engelhard for Congress from the 3rd District. The press of the State would generally be pleased to see Maj. Engelhard honored.

Thieving in Charlotte is becoming alarming—two burglaries on Tuesday night and three on Wednesday night. The robbers enter the houses through the windows. No arrests as yet, although one robber was fired upon while escaping from a window.

Says the Asheville Citizen: "Upon complaints of leading Republicans of Madison, Judge Dick has suspended Mr. Trull from the Deputy Marshalship. Mr. Trull, Mr. Dick has also suspended, but at the instance of very many of the best citizens of the county, of both parties, that gentleman has been reinstated."

The Wilmington Star, of Friday, contained a telegram from Philadelphia which thus compliments the speech of Col. A. M. Waddell, delivered in the latter city on Wednesday night: "A stranger to you, I wish to say that your people should be proud of your Representative Waddell. He made the speech of the evening at our Centennial meeting last night."

The ladies of Clinton, famed all-ways and for their beauty, amiability, culture and grace, and always ready in any good work, propose giving a dinner at that place on the 26th Saturday of April for the benefit of the Oxford Orphan Asylum. Addresses are promised from Mr. Waddell, the Superintendent of the Asylum, and the Rev. B. F. Marable. Let glorious old Sampson rally in all her strength on the occasion.

P. G. C. W. H. Geiken, of Wilmington, instituted a Lodge of the Knights of Pythias in Clinton on Wednesday last, under the name of Clinton Lodge, No. 1. The candidates were initiated, and the following officers installed: W. F. Bashley, C. G.; J. A. Ferrall, V. C.; H. McAlpine, P. W.; A. Johnson, C. R.; and S. W. T. Stetson, M. of E. S. Bookholder, M. of E. E. E. S. T. A. Johnson, O. G.; Dr. C. T. Murphy and J. Jones, Attendants. Dr. C. T. Murphy, John Jones, M. C. Richardson and E. Kerr were chosen P. C.'s.

FATAL PRACTICAL JOKE.—An Ohio paper gives the details of what is called a lamentable accident that occurred in Pike township, Fulton county, that State, a few days ago. The circumstances are substantially as follows: William Mullen, Jr., who lives within a short distance of Winameg, had been in the habit of going in the evening for his mail, and had, on more than one occasion, been annoyed by a certain dog howling near his house, and, on leaving the house Saturday night, he made the remark in the presence of a young man by the name of Bird R. Fleming, who was living there, that he was going to the store, and if that dog made that noise again he was going to shoot him. This young man got in advance of Mullen, and, when he saw the dog, he started, and, in a moment, he was lying on the ground, and Mullen, who was standing by, drew his revolver and fired, killing the boy almost instantly.

W. D. Coleman, late clerk of the Commissioners of the Sinking Fund of Virginia, has been found guilty of forgery in altering the figures of public record books, and has been sentenced to four years imprisonment in the penitentiary. The case will probably be taken to the Court of Appeals.

There is a painful humor in the account of the results of the temperance crusade in Dayton, O. Since the 6th inst., say the dispatches, four saloons have been closed—bought, and 302 still remain.

Trains, it is stated, will run through from Lynchburg and Danville, Va., by the first of May.

DIRECTORS:

PRESIDENT—MAJ. N. M. TANNER, of Rowlett & Tanner.

VICE-PRESIDENT—ROBT. A. MARTIN, of Robert A. Martin & Co.

W. M. R. GRIFFITH, of Baltimore, General Agent.

Petersburg, Va., December 17th, 1873.

To the Farmers and Guano Dealers of North Carolina and Virginia:

Gentlemen: To the many of you with whom I am personally acquainted, I would say, that of good results from GUANAHANI GUANO, I have not the shadow of a doubt, its application would seem certain. It being of animal origin, plant food, success from its ingredients must be all in the soil. Its nitrogen, from nitric acid, is the most available known to fertilize crops. It contains phosphoric acid, which is very valuable, is preferable to the volatile salts in Peruvian Guano. I ask of each of you the kindness of a thorough examination of the accompanying analyses by two of the great chemists of the country. With respect, yours truly, WM. R. GRIFFITH, General Agent.

THE COMPANY GUARANTEES THAT EVERY CARGO WILL BE ANALYZED BEFORE IT IS OFFERED FOR SALE.

LETTER FROM PROF. WM. C. KERR, STATE GEOLOGIST OF NORTH CAROLINA:

Raleigh, N. C., January 7th, 1874.

Wm. R. Griffith, Esq., General Agent Guanahani Guano Company, Petersburg, Virginia.

Dear Sir: I have your favor of the 12th inst., and in reply to inform you that I have no hesitation in endorsing any analysis from your laboratory. And I think the analysis of this substance examined by him is a VALUABLE MANURE.

From his report, and that of Prof. Wilson, it is evidently a TRUE GUANO, both in origin and composition, and its action on crops may be expected to be the same in kind and in degree proportioned to its relative per centage of the valuable ingredients—Phosphoric Acid, Ammonia and Potash, that of the first being unusually high.

Yours truly,

WM. C. KERR, State Geologist.

The Battle Before Bilbao.—Strike of the Miners—Victory for the Cambrage-Vicious Victor.

MADRID, March 27.—The battle of Thursday before Bilbao lasted thirteen hours. The latest dispatches from Marshal Serrano are very hopeful. Some 16 heavy guns were in good position for attack on Pedro Abanto on Friday.

LONDON, March 28.—The coal miners of Staffordshire, to the number of 12,000 have struck.

Mr. Watson, President of the Erie Railway Company, sailed to-day for New York.

The University boat was won by the Cambridge crew by two lengths.

Rome, March 28.—It is reported that King Victor Emanuel burnt the address to him from a number of citizens of Trieste because it contained treasonable sentiments towards Austria, and that he had been selected by the Austrian Government a formal disavowal of sympathy with the address.

LONDON, March 28.—The annual race between the Oxford and Cambridge boat crews came off this morning over the usual course on the Thames, from Putney to Mortlake, a distance of four miles and two furlongs, and, as has been the case for the past four years, resulted in a victory for the Cambridge, which came in two lengths ahead of its rival. The weather was beautiful, and a more propitious day for the contest could hardly have been selected. The crowd that assembled to witness the race was unprecedented. On the Surrey side of the river, from Putney to Mortlake, there was one compact mass of people, some 150 feet wide, and at the latter place carriages were deep and stood in long rows. The Princess of Wales and Duchess of Edinburgh, who were expected to be among the spectators, were absent. Upon the lower side, positions on the Cambridge won, and chose the middle or northern side. The Oxford crew rowed into the stream at one minute after 11 o'clock, and five minutes later the Cambridge boat appeared and was received with immense cheering by its friends. The betting at this time was 5 to 2 in favor of the Cambridge. All things being in readiness, at fourteen minutes past 12 o'clock the signal to start was given and the boats got away instantaneously. The Cambridge had advantage from first rowing at the rate of 37 strokes per minute but both crews pulled steadily. After an exciting contest the Cambridge reached the ship at Mortlake at 37 minutes and 35 seconds past 11 o'clock, running the race in 27 minutes and 35 seconds. The water, though not so smooth as would have been desired, was fairly calm.

FROM NEW YORK.

Old Bergh Nosing Around—A Mandamus on Judge Davis.

NEW YORK, March 28.—The two thousand dollar pigeon match which was to have come off to-day, between Paine, of this city, and James Ward, of Canada, has been stopped through the instrumentality of Bergh.

The Supreme Court has granted an order to show cause why a writ of mandamus should not issue against Judge Davis, on motion of counsel for Tweed, who claim there were certain exceptions taken in the course of trial, and noted by stenographer in his minutes which the Chief Justice improperly refused to allow in settling the case on appeal. The order is made returnable 23rd April next, and counsel for Tweed are given until 15th of the same month to submit further affidavits.

The Erie striking laborers have accepted the Company's terms and resumed work.

MIDNIGHT DISPATCHES.

Difficulty Between a Railroad Company and its Employees.

SURGEON GENERAL DEPOT, Pa., March 28.—An exciting meeting has been held by the strikers here. They are firm and united, and will allow no train to pass nor any business to be done until the Railroad Company accede to all their demands. District Attorney Carmalt, of this county, assuring them of his sympathy, and telling them they were not breaking the laws. The Company has but two alternatives, either to accede to all the demands of the men, or send for military. Intense excitement prevails throughout the village, and Sheriff Holmes is powerless, his posse all sympathizing with the strikers.

The South Carolina Tax Payers Memorialists in Washington.

NOTICE.

THE COLLECTORSHIP OF THE PORT OF WILMINGTON—Colored Delegation.

Memorializing the Removal of Rumilly—Wanted—Rumilly Declared a Drone in the Republican Party.

WASHINGTON, March 28th.—The colored North Carolinians who are advocating the removal of the present Collector of the port of Wilmington, have made a statement to the President in substance that they wish to withdraw so much of their first statement contained in the memorial asking the appointment of a colored man, Geo. L. Mabson, because they do not wish it understood that they would advocate the removal of the present incumbent, Mr. Rumilly, on the ground of his being a white man. Their position is that Mr. Rumilly is of no earthly account on service to the Republic, and that he is a drone upon the party and is kept in position through the influence of men, whose actions are detrimental to the best interest of the party, and that his removal will be a satisfactory nine-tenths of the real Republicans of the 3rd District, as well as the foremost men in the State outside of the District. The memorialists state that they will not name any person for the vacancy unless requested to do so by the President, but will be satisfied with the removal of Mr. Rumilly, and content with the appointment of any member of good standing in the party living in the State. They further state that the District in which this collection port is, having no Republican representative, they would suggest that Hon. Thos. Settle, Gen. Allen Rutherford, and Mr. Rumilly be asked to name a successor for Mr. Rumilly, in case the order of removal is made. The Committee are to see the President Wednesday, when the matter will be disposed of one way or the other.

An Attempt to Kill B. G. Jayne.

NEW YORK, March 28.—Jno. P. Atkinson, Street Broker and discharged Custom House officer has been arrested on the charge of attempting to stab special agent B. G. Jayne. Jayne asserts that this is the third attempt Atkinson has made on his life and gives in explanation that he caused his dismissal from the Custom House four years ago. Atkinson says he only sought to do himself harm from an assault by Jayne, saying his uplifted cane and threatening to stab if it was used, and the whole affair grew out of a demand by him from the payment of this five thousand dollars informers fees in the Weed Revenue case, Boston, which Jayne has absolutely refused to pay, denying the validity of the claim.

A Destructive Fire.

NEW YORK, March 28.—Sparks from a locomotive last night ignited a brush near Farmingdale, Long Island, and in a remarkable short time five hundred acres of timber land were in flames. The rain this morning gave a decided check to the fire. A number of cattle and a boy were burned.
